

Discussion questions for *The Demas Revelation

by Shane Johnson

1. In the prologue, as she's leaving the cave, Anna catches a scent of myrrh in the air. What might this signify?
2. Following the discovery of the scrolls, Anna's faith is shaken and for a time, even lost. How would you respond to such a find? How would your faith weather such a storm?
3. What importance does historical or physical evidence hold in evaluating the validity of the Christian faith?
4. Many die in the crisis at Vesuvius, but far fewer than would have perished had the terrorist act never taken place. In what ways does this show God's love and mercy? What instances in history show God using the evil acts of man for good, in order to accomplish His own plan?
5. What is the significance of the story's final discoveries being made at Pompeii and Herculaneum?
